Welcome to the Cheyenne Livestock Exposition!

All roads do lead to Cheyenne this November. Sitting in the heart of cow country, taking a step back in tradition in preserving our western heritage. Cheyenne is the obvious choice, with great hotels, restaurants and the greater Cheyenne community going above and beyond to make this a very welcoming stay.

We are very excited to welcome all exhibitors, vendors and guests. The Wyoming Angus Association Angus Female Sale will be offering an outstanding opportunity to purchase elite genetics.

Let's don't forget our supreme drive events, where the finest in each breed and species will vie for large cash prizes and awards. An hour before the Supreme Drives, gather by the social for drinks with our great friends from Pine Bluffs Distilling.

In order to bring this event about, we need to thank the greater Cheyenne community, Laramie County Commissioners, Cheyenne Chamber of Commerce, Visit Cheyenne, and numerous other sponsors of the event.

Thank you to the staff and all the volunteers and support of you – the livestock breeders. We are excited to welcome you November 13-26, 2023 to the Cheyenne Livestock Exposition.

This complaint, along with supporting documents, will be submitted to the Cheyenne Livestock Exposition Management Superintendent. The report of wrongdoing will then be presented to a neutral panel appointed by the superintendent for review. The panel shall review the form, the allegations, and the supporting documents or evidence and report its findings and proposed decision to the Cheyenne Livestock Exposition Superintendent. At no time will any exhibition, judging event, or any other ongoing event be delayed, stopped or interrupted as a result of any allegation of wrongdoing. Where a formal protest is to be made against the competition of an animal or article in any class, notice of the same must be filed with the Department Superintendent before the class is judged or prior to any Division or Grand Champion Drive. Once an animal/exhibit reaches championship judging, NO protests will be accepted. HEALTH AND BRAND REQUIREMENTS FOR ANIMALS EXHIBITED AND SOLD AT THE 2023 CHEYENNE LIVESTOCK EXPOSITION

Wyoming Livestock Board – State Veterinarian’s
Office 1934 Wyott Dr., Cheyenne, WY 82002
Phone: 307-857-4140 or 307-777-7515

The Cheyenne Livestock Exposition, in cooperation with the Wyoming State Veterinarian’s Office and the Wyoming Livestock Board, recognizes and abides by the importation laws of the state of Wyoming. The requirements in this document reflect the import and livestock movements of the Wyoming Livestock Board, as well as additional requirements from the Cheyenne Livestock Exposition.

Livestock disease control is vital for the livestock industry in Wyoming and the nation. Biosecurity is a key component of controlling diseases. Anytime animals are commingled, the chance of spreading disease is multiplied and so is the need for heightened biosecurity.

If an emerging disease is detected in Wyoming or any other state, additional requirements may be put in place.

BRAND INSPECTION Wyoming is a Brand Inspection state. State law requires a brand inspection be completed on ANY livestock (horses, mules, cattle and sheep) prior to movement across a county or state line, and when a change of ownership occurs. All cattle being sold at any Exposition sale must provide proof of ownership prior to the sale. This can be established through brand inspection documentation, use of the owner's registered brand, bill of sale or title document. Health documents from non-brand states are a valid piece of the puzzle, but must be augmented by other evidence of ownership, as above. If proof of ownership is not supplied, proceeds will be held until such proof is provided. All livestock leaving the event must have an inspection performed. If the livestock is from and returning to a brand state which provides for a Lifetime or Permanent permit, those will be honored. Brand inspectors will be available for any exposition sale and at the times posted at the event office. For questions concerning brand inspection, contact the Wyoming Brand Office at 307-777-7515.
